Café Racer Version

- The Café Racer has 3 categories in terms of cosmetics: Naked, Freedom and Custom
  - Naked: As the name says, the Café Racer Naked stands for translucent panels (side panels and back panel).
  - Freedom: The Café Racer Freedom has panels with the Café Racer Logo which mean you can see the internals of the machine. It has also a LED light on the sides
  - Custom: This is by far one of the most impressive versions. It has 2 panels on the sides covered with leather and different finishes.

Café Racer Naked

With its unmistakable transparent sides, the Café Racer Naked lets you see its powerful heart of pure stainless steel. The chassis, resistant and essential, is a pure frame with a functional design, supporting and enhancing the essence of the coffee machine.

The Café Racer Naked is available in 2 finishes: black and steel, both of which can be further customised in certain details.

Café Racer Freedom

4 special shades colour the side panels of the Café Racer Freedom, customised with the rear-lit logo that is inspired by the period of the mythical café racer motorcycles. A history rich in fascination and stories, emanating character, style and uniqueness.

The machines are also available in versions with a black or steel chassis, with an exclusive red finish on some details, conceived especially for certain models.

Note: The freedom models comes with the Café Racer logo and internal LED light reflecting the logo
